

The World Community for Christian Meditation Presents

East and West: The Universal Call of the Spirit

May 9—May 11, 2008

Please join us for a retreat based on the teachings and spirituality of Bede Griffiths, OSB, and Abishiktananda (Henri Le Saux OSB). This practical application incorporates the best of Eastern philosophy and practice with Western spirituality toward the new mysticism of the 21st century. The retreat will include prayer, song, meditation, exercise and teaching.

Our presenter, Cyprian Consiglio, OSB, is a monk of the Camaldolese Congregation. He has recorded five collections of original music and has also composed an oratorio, The Song of Luke. Fr. Cyprian, a student of the writings of Bede Griffiths, has a great love of comparative religion, has done work in inter-faith ritual, and travels to India to study and teach music and liturgy.

Cyprian Consiglio, OSB

Friday, May 9, 7 pm (gather at 6:30 pm)

Saturday, May 10, 9 am to 4 pm

Sunday, May 11, 9am to Noon

Participants are invited to bring their families to the Mother's Day concluding liturgy.

Location and (Optional) Lodging

Dominican Sisters Meeting Room, 6501 Almeda, Houston, Texas 77021

20 private rooms with shared bath and continental breakfast are available at a rate of $25 per person, per night on the premises.

Send form and check payable to WCCM Houston to:

Anne Singley, 1917 Wroxton Road, Houston, Texas 77005

Name(s) _____

Address _____

City/ State _____ zip _____

Daytime Phone _____ Email _____

Requested Donation: $75 ($45 if enrolled in Roots Course)

A Continental breakfast will be provided on Saturday and Sunday.

Lunch will be provided for Saturday attendees. Please circle sandwich preference:

Turkey

Tuna

Ham

Chicken Salad

Vegetarian

For details: claudiamorgan@comcast.net, 713.668.1209 or www.wccmtexas.org